

Press Information

01 February 2011

St. Peter's School offers new range of qualifications

Cambridge International Centre status awarded to local school.

St. Peter's School has been awarded International Centre status by University of Cambridge International Examinations (CIE). St. Peter's School will now offer a range of internationally accepted qualifications including Cambridge's International AS & A-Levels.

University of Cambridge International Examinations (CIE) is the world's largest provider of international qualifications for 14-19 year olds. CIE offers a broad range of qualifications, created for an international audience. CIE's qualifications include Cambridge IGCSE and International A/AS Level. CIE qualifications are taken in 150 countries and recognised by universities, educational providers and employers across the world.

Ann Purtils, Chief Executive of University of Cambridge International Examinations, said: "We are delighted to announce that St. Peter's School has become a registered Centre and look forward to a long and productive relationship which will be of great benefit to students throughout the region."

As a Cambridge International Centre, St. Peter's School will offer students in Spain internationally renowned qualifications that are recognised by educational institutions and employers across the globe.

Sarah Dowsett, Examinations Officer said: "St. Peter's School is proud to be associated with Cambridge as it enables us to extend our service and offer quality education to the local community."