St. Peter's School offers new range of qualifications

Cambridge International Centre status awarded to local school

St. Peter's School has been awarded International Centre status by University of Cambridge International Examinations (CIE). St. Peter's School will now offer a range of internationally accepted qualifications including Cambridge International AS & A Levels.

University of Cambridge International Examinations (CIE) is the world's largest provider of international qualifications for 16-19 year olds. CIE offers a broad range of qualifications, created for an international audience. CIE's qualifications include Cambridge IGCSE and International AS & A Levels. CIE qualifications are taken in 100 countries and recognised by universities, educational providers and employers across the world.

Ann Purdie, Chief Executive of University of Cambridge International Examinations, said: "We are delighted to announce that St. Peter's School has become a registered Centre and look forward to a long and productive relationship which will see a great number of students throughout the region."

As a Cambridge International Centre, St. Peter's School will offer students a range of internationally-recognised qualifications that are recognised by educational institutions and employers across the globe.

David Howell, Examinations Officer said: "St. Peter's School is proud to be associated with Cambridge as it enables us to extend our offering and offer quality education to the local community."
